Ensuring Highly Performing Human Resource for Health Teams through Effective Human Resource Management

For: Physicians, nurses, teachers, professors, academicians, researchers, staff personnel

The Philippines is now committed to a 25 year HRH Master Plan during the decade of HRH Development declared by WHO. Government and private health managers will benefit from learning how to manage HRH resources from recruitment to succession. Workforce planning, forecasting and management are critical skills that managers need to use to manage the health workforce for the 21st century.
